IV. Canada's History

Aboriginal Peoples

When Europeans arrived, all regions of Canada were already occupied by native peoples they called Indians, because the first explorers thought they had reached the East Indies

Lifestyles depended on geography:

- Huron-Wendat of the Great Lakes, like the Iroquois: farmers and hunters
- Cree & Dene of Northwest: hunter-gatherers
- Sioux: nomadic, followed bison
- Inuit: Arctic wildlife
- West Coast peoples: fishing, drying and smoking fish

Warfare occurred between groups over land and resources

Europeans arrival brought diseases that killed many Aboriginals due to lack of immunity

However, coexistence of Aboriginal peoples and Europeans formed strong economic, religious, and military bonds in the first 200 years that helped shape Canada.

The First Europeans

Vikings from Iceland reached Labrador and Newfoundland ~1,000 years ago

- The remains of their settlement, l'Anse aux Meadows, are a World Heritage site.

- Finally made peace in 1701

The French and Aboriginal people collaborated in the fur trade, trading beaver pelts for European markets.

Leaders like Jean Talon, Bishop Laval, and Count Frontenac built a French Empire in North America from Hudson Bay to the Gulf of Mexico.

Struggle for a Continent
